

1. Find total order amount per customer
2. Count total orders placed by each customer
3. Find the highest order amount with customer details
4. Show all orders including orders with invalid customers
5. Find unmatched records from both tables
6. Show customer name and products purchased
7. Find total quantity sold per product
8. Find products NEVER sold
9. Find top-selling product
10. Find customers who purchased iPhone 15
11. Display employee and manager names
12. Find employees managed by Priya
13. Generate all product-city combinations
14. Generate all possible product-customer pairs
15. Find customers who signed up but never ordered.
16. Find total revenue generated by each city.
17. Find products with low sales quantity.
18. Find orphan orders (orders without customers).
19. Find customers who ordered multiple times
20. Find customer who spent the most
21. Difference between:
 - a. INNER JOIN
 - b. LEFT JOIN
 - c. RIGHT JOIN
 - d. FULL OUTER JOIN
22. What happens if join condition is missing?